

"The Timebank" is nominated for an award at the International Film Festival Ireland in September 2009.

We made it again! Our documentary The Timebank – an economy for everyone is nominated again to win its second award – this time at the International Film Festival Ireland 2009 in Clonmel, County Tipperary.

The awards ceremony and screening of our debut film will take place on Saturday September 12th. We are looking forward to the Emerald Isle.
